STREAM ALLOCATION IN CLASS XI

Subject Selection is a very important decision in the life of a student. Learning is a continuous process and the child displays capacity inclination and capacity from early on. The school, teachers and parents have to be responsive to the child's natural capacity and support the child in choosing the right field of study. This decision of subject selection however must be based on information/exposure and passion however all this has to backed with data and observation of the teachers continuously. Work habits and discipline is an important aspect in success in student life.

The following is the criterion which would be followed in school for allotting Stream of Study to students in class XI.

Class VIII-10%		Class IX-20%		Class X-55%		Stream Allotment
Term I	Term II	Term I	Term II	1st Term	Pre-Board 1	Out of

I				exam
5%	5%	10%	10%	20%	35%	85% (Converted into 95%)
However, if any confusion remains % allocated for Board Results						05%

Due to the prevailing pandemic, it will not be feasible to conduct the Aptitude Test this year, therefore, the above mentioned 85% will be converted into 95%.

SCIENCE STREAM

Students securing 75% and above marks in English, Mathematics and Science according to the above criteria

COMMERCE STREAM

Students securing 75% and above marks in English, Mathematics and Social Science according to the above criteria

HUMANITIES STREAM

Students securing 75% and above marks in English, and Social Science according to the above criteria. If the child wishes to study Mathematics, then 75% in this subject according to the above criteria would be applicable.

Note:

If during the course of any class the school Special Learning Department (SLD) detects any kind of Learning Need it is the responsibility of the parent to get it tested immediately so that the school can support the child in his/her learning journey.
